

BIO DATA : MAJ GEN G S TALWAR, ADG NCC (DELHI)

Maj Gen G S Talwar, is an alumnus of Indian Military Academy, Dehradun. He was commissioned into the Regiment of Artillery in Dec 1981 and was first posted to 90 Mountain Regiment, a unit which he subsequently commanded as Commanding Officer during OP PARAKRAM in Bhuj Sector. He is an accomplished helicopter pilot with 1000 hours of flying on Cheetah/Chetek helicopter. He has accredited himself in all courses including Defence Services Staff College, Senior Command and NBC Staff Officers Course. A highly qualified officer, the General Officer has held various command, staff and Instructional appointment. His academic qualifications include BA, Political Science (Hons), MSc in Defence and Strategic Studies, Diploma in Software Technology and Diploma in Human Resource Management. He has been a Battalion Commander at Indian Military Academy. He was Commander, 2 Mountain Artillery Brigade and Commander, Corps Artillery Brigade at Nagrota. The General Officer has also held the prestigious appointments, Deputy Director General Artillery (Operations) at IHQ of MoD (Army) and Major General Artillery at HQ Northern Command. The officer is presently posted as the Additional Director General, NCC Directorate Delhi since 01 May 2017.