

BIO DATA :MAJ GEN RAJAT KUMAR MATHUR, VSM

Maj Gen R K Mathur, VSM, an alumnus of National Defence Academy and Indian Military Academy, was commissioned in the Regiment of Artillery on 14 Jun 1986.

The General Officer has done Long Gunnery Staff Course at School of Artillery, Deolali, Defence Services Staff Course at Wellington, Senior Command and Higher Command courses at Mhow as well as the Physical Training and Commando courses. The General Officer holds degrees in MSc (Defence and Strategic Studies) from Madras University and M Phil from Devi Ahilyabai University. The General Officer has vast operational experience in various domains having served in numerous command, staff and instructional assignments in various parts of our country and abroad.

The General Officer has been conferred with the Vishisht Seva Medal and Army Commander Commendation Cards in Northern Command and South Western Command for his distinguished and exemplary service, besides the Army Commander ARTRACs Gold Medal for Best Dissertation during his Higher Command Course.

After commanding a Division in the Eastern Theatre, the General Officer is presently the Additional Director General NCC Directorate Delhi since 13 November 2019, wherein he has been actively engaged in moulding vibrant youth into effective future leaders and responsible citizens conscious of their role in Nation Building and National Unity.